

I Belong Essay Contest

I came to America when I was 7 years old. I was born in Egypt I have 4 siblings. I like to spend time with all of them. I also love spending time with my parents. I went to _____ elementary school. When I went to my new school I was scared at first because I didn't know how to speak English but my teachers taught me and I was so happy that I learned how to speak English. My teachers taught me how to write, read and do other fun things. I liked my school and I love my friends. They were kind to me and helpful. Now I am done with 5th grade and going to 6th grade and I am excited to see who my teacher is. My 5th grade teacher was really nice and kind. _____ teaches us English when we need help. _____ is a really nice teacher. She works in _____. She helped other parents. Once in the after school program, a teacher said that they will be doing a contest. They also said anyone can participate. So I did the essay and my essay was about the Boston Tea Party. I was one of the top winners. I got a degree and was so happy that I was one of the top winners. My parents were so proud of me and I was so proud of myself. My parents were happy with my grades too. I got straight A's in school. I am so happy that I came to America because I got to make new friends and meet new people and learn a new language. My favorite thing to do when I am bored is to paint and draw. I also love to write and read about animals. When I grow up I want to be a doctor because I liked the doctors here and I liked to help people feel better. I love to help people when they're sick or when they need help:)
